Killed While Cleaning a Revolver.
PITTSBURG, Jan. 22.—While cleaning his revolver at the Hipwell Manufacturing Company's plant in Allegheny yesterday afternoon, Albert M. Lanning, a business man of Jacksonville, Fla., was shot through the heart. He died almost instantly. Lanning was a member of the A. H. Lanning Paint Company at Jacksonville. He is survived by his wife and a little daughter. The Hipwells say the shooting was accidental.

AFFAIRS OF THE DISTRICT

Commissioners Order Amendments to the Police Regulations.

New Hack Stand Established—Penalty for Householders Violating the Ash Receptacle Ordinance—Bill Approved for an Increase of the Salaries of Police Court Clerks.

By order of the Board of Commissioners today several amendments were made to the Police Regulations. One of them relates to the location of hack stands, another defines the term ashes, and a third relates to the duties of occupants of premises with reference to metallic receptacles for ashes. The order is as follows:

"That section 2 of Article IV of the Police Regulations relating to the location of hack stands is hereby amended so as to provide for the establishment of a stand for eight vehicles on the southwest side of Water Street southwest, beginning twenty-five feet southeast of the entrance to the wharf of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, and extending southwesterly."

"That Article XIV is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sections:

"Section 11. The term ashes will be construed to include ashes from wood, coal, and other substances used for fuel, in connection with the ordinary conduct of dwellings, but not such as may accumulate as the result of building operations."

"Sec. 12. Occupants of premises from which ashes are collected at public expense shall provide for the use of such receptacles to contain all ashes that may accumulate on said premises during the usual interval between the collections of ashes therefrom and shall keep such receptacle or receptacles at all times in good repair; each such receptacle to be provided with a handle. No person without a permit from the Superintendent of Street Cleaning, shall deposit ashes for collection in any receptacle having a capacity of less than ten nor more than twenty-four gallons, nor in more than one receptacle containing less than twenty-four gallons."

"Sec. 13. Receptacles when filled must be placed in such a position as to be easily accessible to the collector between the hours of 7 o'clock a. m. and 6 o'clock p. m. of each day on which the collection is made from the premises."

"Sec. 14. Any person violating any of the provisions of these regulations shall on conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not less than $1 nor more than $40 for each and every offence."

P. T. McDonald, of 1031 Potomac Street, recently made application for lease of the lot fronting on the east and west side of his wharf. He submitted a statement with reference to the matter, and offered a rental of $20 per annum.

J. R. Sutton, the Harbor Master, in reporting to the Commissioners upon the application, informed them that the lot in question was formerly the fish wharf. He stated that it is owned by the District and is at present occupied by the applicant in looking after the unloading of various merchants' and shippers' vessels. He also informed the Commissioners that he regarded $30 as a fair rental for the lot.

The Engineer Commissioner has recommended to his associates that Mr. McDonald be informed that in the opinion of the Board the lot is worth more to the District for storage purposes than the amount of rent offered.

This recommendation the Board today approved.

A question has been raised with reference to the depth of the sewer in Champlain Avenue, George W. Linkins, of 809 Nineteenth Street northwest, claiming that it is beyond the proper depth, and asking that a duplicate sewer be laid in Superior Street into the alley of block 11.

The Commissioners have returned to the District of Columbia House resolution 3575, of their approval. The resolution in question contains an amendment proposed by Senator Gallinger to the District Appropriation bill for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1902, relative to the increased pay of clerks in the Police Court.

In their letter of transmittal the Commissioners state that the items embraced in the amendment are in accordance with the recommendations of the Board contained in their annual estimates. They inform the chairman that their action was based upon a report of the Judges of the Police Court to this effect:

"We have estimated for an increase of $200 each in the pay of two of the deputy clerks over the amount allowed during the present fiscal year. The duties of the clerks of the Police Court are not only very difficult, requiring first class men, but the hours of service are long and they are required under the law to be on duty every holiday during the year, and we think, in justice to them, the appropriation should be made at the rate we have named."

The Commissioners ask that the amendment be incorporated in the Appropriation bill.

At the instance of Charles E. Slentz, of 1238 Seventh Street northwest, the Commissioners have ordered that no further license be granted for the exhibition of the so-called wild man at 1240 Seventh Street.

The Commissioners today issued orders: That sewer be constructed in the alleys in square 267 at an estimated cost of $1,000, chargeable to the current appropriation for replacing obstructed sewers.

That P Street northeast, between North Capitol Street and Delaware Avenue, be resurfaced at an estimated cost of $5,500, chargeable to the current appropriation for repairs to streets, avenues, and alleys.

Shot a Fugitive to Death.
AUGUSTA, Ga., Jan. 22.—At Blythe, this county, on Sunday, Thomas and Harry Hughes went to the cabin of John Jones to effect his capture. Jones is a negro who recently escaped from Waynesboro jail, together with a number of other criminals. The white men called upon the negro to surrender. He opened fire upon them with a shotgun, and they shot him to death.

NEWS FROM GEORGETOWN.

The Movement to Bring Alexandria County Into the District.

Georgetown men are much concerned in the movement on foot among the leading spirits of Alexandria county, to declare illegal the retrocession of that part of the original District lying south of the Potomac River in the State of Virginia. George G. Boteler states that such legal giants as Daniel Webster and Benjamin F. Butler always declared that the retrocession was not unconstitutional, inasmuch as the Constitution was not amended when the forty-six square mile tract was returned to the Old Dominion. The duty of the committee appointed yesterday by the Alexandria County Development Company will be to bring the matter to the attention of the Supreme Court. Some years ago R. A. Phillips refused to pay taxes to the State of Virginia on property situated in what is called Alexandria county. The State instituted proceedings and the matter was taken to the Supreme Court of the United States. That body, however, threw the case out of court, declaring that it had no jurisdiction, declaring that the points on which Phillips desired a decision could only be brought legally before the Supreme Court upon the application of the State and not an individual. In other words, the Supreme Court declared that there was no case before it. A vote of the people of Alexandria county would result, it is said, in an overwhelming expression in favor of the return to the District. Politicians would probably work against a return. The United States would acquire through the return of the Virginia district exclusive control of both banks of the Potomac, thus getting rid of much annoyance in matters pertaining to bridges and the Virginia banks of the Potomac. The United States already controls nearly 1,100 acres in Alexandria county in the Fort Myer and Arlington reservations.

Rev. Edward D. Johnson has resigned the rectory of Grace Church and has accepted the pastorate of St. Paul's Church, in Brunswick, Me. He will leave about the 1st of next month for his new field.

The sick list of the Seventh Precinct station has greatly decreased in the past week. The number of the incapacitated has dropped from ten to four. Those who are still unable to report for duty are Privates Archibald, Haney, Robey, and Sergeant Keefer.

Mrs. Mary-Anna W. Wilson died at an early hour this morning at the family residence, 1520 Twenty-ninth Street. Mrs. Wilson is survived by her husband, J. Henry Wilson, and five children, namely, Mrs. Frank A. Edwards, one of the Baltimore, Md. Police, and Mrs. John J. Wilson, Allen E. Wilson, Emory M. Wilson, and Mrs. Joel A. Tilton.

TO INCREASE MACHINISTS' PAY.
The Central Labor Union Will Present Resolutions to Mr. Gage.

At a meeting of the Central Labor Union held last night a resolution was passed authorizing the appointment of a committee to wait on Secretary Gage in the interests of the machinists employed at the Washington Navy Yard. The committee will ask the Secretary to increase the pay of the machinists to $4 per day, which amount it is said the employees at other navy yards receive. The meeting was well attended and President Feeney was in the chair.

Representative of a temporary organization known as the "structural iron painters' union" were accorded the privileges of the floor, to state their reason for wanting a charter. The temporary organization of painters in the District is affiliated with the Knights of Labor and the structural iron painters wished to secure a charter from the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators of America, which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. Upon learning this it was stated that the Central Labor Union objected to the dual organization of painters in the District, and requested that the charter asked for be withheld.

The structural iron painters explained that their work was entirely different from that done by house painters and consequently their interests would not conflict. After some discussion on the matter, further consideration was deferred until the next meeting of the union. The secretary of the union, some time ago, sent a letter to the local painters' assembly asking the members of that organization to affiliate with Paul and Gordon, a waiter at the Fat Men's Club, on the 24th of December. The wheel had been previously recovered by Detectives Muller and Barr in Alexandria.

Arrested on Charge of Theft.
Annie Gardner, colored, was arrested by Detective Muller and Barr this morning and brought to this city William Edwards, colored, thirty-five years old, who is charged with the theft of a bicycle from Paul and Gordon, a waiter at the Fat Men's Club, on the 24th of December. The wheel had been previously recovered by Detectives Muller and Barr in Alexandria.

Insurance Company Elects Officers.
At the forty-sixth annual meeting of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company, held yesterday, Matthew G. Emory, George T. Dearing, William A. H. Church, Timothy W. Murphy, George C. Walker, R. Harrison Johnson, and B. F. Saul were unanimously elected on the board of managers. The board met later and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: George T. Dearing, president; L. Pierce Boteler, secretary; W. A. H. Church, treasurer; William Reed Macgill and B. Simpson, assistant secretaries, and Franklin Barrett, assistant treasurer. A resolution was adopted to the effect that the stockholders of the company are vigorously opposed to the passage of Senate bill 5201, believing that the rights and interests of each member of the company are protected under its present charter.

Funeral of Robert W. Brown.
The remains of the late Robert W. Brown, who died on Sunday, aged eighty-five years, were buried at Glenwood Cemetery this afternoon. The funeral took place from 229 H Street northeast, the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary F. Wells. Rev. Dr. Hooper, of the North Capital Methodist Episcopal Church, officiated, and six grandsons of the deceased acted as pallbearers.

Death of Mrs. M. R. Paige.
Mrs. Minnie Kathleen Paige died at her home, 1024 Riggs Street last night. A week ago last Sunday her husband, Joseph Gates Paige, who was chief clerk in the office of the Comptroller of the Currency, died of pneumonia. On that day Mrs. Paige was attacked with the disease. Her remains, with those of the husband, will be taken to Albany, N. Y., for burial. The deceased leaves one child, a girl eight years old.

The fourth annual meeting of the Audubon Society of the District will take place at the Columbian University on next Monday evening, T. S. Palmer will speak on "Bird Protection in 1901, Work of the Society, and Enforcement of the Laws." Frank M. Chapman, of the American Museum of Natural History, of New York, will illustrate, with lantern slides, an address on the habits of birds.

Funeral of an Old Resident.
One of the largest funerals ever held in St. Dominic's Church was that yesterday of Mrs. Catherine Hobden, widow of the late Thomas F. Hobden. She was a resident of this city for over fifty years, coming here in 1849 with her young husband from Ireland, where she was born. She was associated with St. Dominic's parish from the date of its organization up to the time of her death, and was a most devout woman. She was the mother of fourteen children, five of whom are still living. They are Dr. R. F. Hobden, Thomas Hobden, of the Gas Company, John Hobden, and the Misses Elizabeth and Agnes Hobden.

Tired Out

And she does not understand why. Her work used to seem so easy. You could tell her whereabouts as she worked by the snatches of song which now and again overflowed her happy lips. And now she can hardly keep up. Her head aches, her back hurts, and she feels entirely worn out.

What is the matter? The probability is that the stomach is disordered, the liver is not performing its whole duty. Poisons are accumulating in the blood, and unless these are removed, and the stomach and organs of digestion are strengthened, there is liable to be a serious illness. There is no medicine can equal Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for prompt help and perfect cure for diseases of the stomach and blood. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, nourishes the nerves, and brings back the happy days of health, when life is all song and sunshine.

"I suffered ten months from a complicated case of liver complaint, constipation, indigestion, suppression of monthly function, and kidney disease," writes Miss Lulu M. Brittle, of New York, "and after trying every remedy in my back and head, I am glad to say that six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' three bottles of 'Pierce's Pleasant Pellets' and two bottles of 'Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla' cured me. I gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine to all sufferers."
